If you want to help your student learn about our global economy, be a volunteer!

JA is a non-profit organization that teaches kids basic economics and social studies skills, using carefully developed curriculum materials and trained volunteers to present the program.

Volunteer opportunity #1 - Help with student check-in, snacks, teaching assistance (passing handouts, organizing group activities), and classroom management. No experience necessary!

Volunteer opportunity #2 – Be a presenter for a grade-level class. JA provides all instructional materials and a one-hour training session for presenters.

JA is great community outreach for business professionals with presentation experience or individuals with teaching experience to use your skills while volunteering.

Parent volunteers who sign up for all five sessions are guaranteed that their student will have a place in the Club (if registration exceeds our capacity). If you like to teach or present, you will love the excellent materials and ready-to-go presenter's kit. JA makes it easy to be a success!

For more information, contact Patrick Gequerdo at 630-383-1453 or bearfan4peace@yahoo.com.

There's no better way to show your children that you value learning – than by volunteering with JA.

Thank YOU!!! Your time is greatly appreciated.

Yes, I can help! Sign me up. Please mark the day(s) that you can volunteer.
